WELCOME TO EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

02 PARISH FAMILY | GOD IS WITH US

OUR MISSION

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As a parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

"THE CHOICE TO FORGIVE"

IS 55:10-11 | PS 65:10, 11, 12-13, 14 | ROM 8:18-23 | MT 13:1-23

When I was 12 years old I read a book which marked me forever. The book was 'Left to Tell' by Immaculée Ilibagiza. It is the story of a young woman during the Rwandan genocide of 1994 and how she survived. Immaculée tells of how, except for one brother, her whole family was killed leaving her alone after 3 months of brutal slaughter. What struck me the most about her story was the fact that she chose to forgive the people who had done these terrible things. Not only did she forgive them but she knew many of the killers and still choose to forgive. The killers had been friends and neighbors, people she had known. In the face of such horrific betrayal she still chose to forgive because of the deep faith that she had found in those three months hiding from the killers. She realized that if she did not forgive she would never be able to live her life. Her unforgiveness would consume her and destroy her. She had to let go of her anger.

What Immaculée began doing by forgiving the killers was what we pray for in the Our Father. We pray, 'forgive us our trespass as we forgive those who trespass against us'. Immaculée understood that if she did not forgive the people that had hurt her the most deeply then she had no claim on the forgiveness of God. God offers us unconditional forgiveness. But until we are willing to step into that forgiveness by also forgiving those that have harmed us we will always be bound by unforgiveness.

Forgiveness is not a feeling or a one and done deal which we do once and never have to think about again. Forgiveness needs to become a way of life for us as Christians. There is a journey of entering into forgiveness. Both forgiveness of others and ourselves. It is something that we will grow into our whole life. We will never do it perfectly. There will always be things that we need to choose to forgive. In choosing forgiveness though we are choosing life and freedom.

Most of us probably know someone who has held onto a grudge or has been angry about something that happened to them and it has totally consumed their life. Anger when it is not channeled into forgiveness turns against the person and hurts us. We are the ones who suffer most from a lack of forgiveness and we forgive as much for ourselves as for the perpetrator. This is what Immaculée shows us is that no matter how terrible things have been we must forgive. Jesus himself forgave those who crucified him upon the cross and his example and the imperative in the Our Father compel us to begin seeking a life of forgiveness.

May we all begin living a life of forgiveness more deeply.

Becoming Catholic

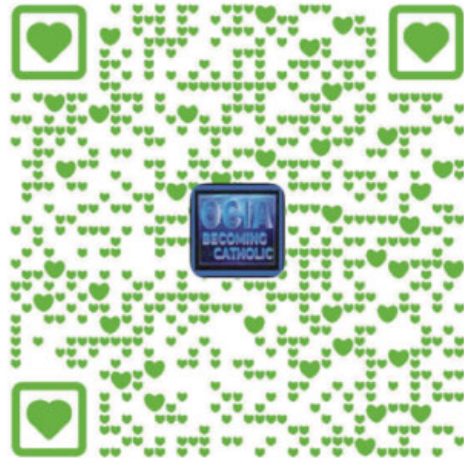

RCIA

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

IS NOW

HERE'S WHY

PRAYER BEFORE COMMUNION

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first. Accept me this day as a partaker of your mystical supper O Son of God. May the partaking of your holy mysteries, O Lord, be not for judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of body and soul. I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious Body & Blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and life everlasting. Amen.

PROTECTION FROM STORMS

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before You as Your children in thanksgiving for Your loving care and protection.

We ask that You keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons.

Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain.

You alone bring peace, calm and safety.

Father, we thank You in advance, for You are our only refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles and patroness of our diocese, pray for us.

ST. MICHAEL PRAYER

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

SAINT CAMILLUS DE LELLIS

FEAST DAY: JULY 18

Humanly speaking, Camillus was not a likely candidate for sainthood. His mother died when he was a child, his father neglected him, and he grew up with an excessive love for gambling. At 17, he was afflicted with a disease of his leg that remained with him for life. In Rome he entered the San Giacomo Hospital for Incurables as both patient and servant, but was dismissed for quarrelsomeness after nine months. He served in the Venetian army for three years

Then in the winter of 1574, when he was 24, Camillus gambled away everything he had—savings, weapons, literally down to his shirt. He accepted work at the Capuchin friary at Manfredonia, and was one day so moved by a sermon of the superior that he began a conversion that changed his life. He entered the Capuchin novitiate, but was dismissed because of the apparently incurable sore on his leg. After another stint of service at San Giacomo, he came back to the Capuchins, only to be dismissed again, for the same reason.

Again, back at San Giacomo, his dedication was rewarded by his being made superintendent. Camillus devoted the rest of his life to the care of the sick. Along with Saint John of God he has been named patron of hospitals, nurses, and the sick. With the advice of his friend Saint Philip Neri, he studied for the priesthood and was ordained at the age of 34. Contrary to the advice of his friend, Camillus left San Giacomo and founded a congregation of his own. As superior, he devoted much of his own time to the care of the sick.

Charity was his first concern, but the physical aspects of the hospital also received his diligent attention. Camillus insisted on cleanliness and the technical competence of those who served the sick. The members of his community bound themselves to serve prisoners and persons infected by the plague as well as those dying in private homes. Some of his men were with troops fighting in Hungary and Croatia in 1595, forming the first recorded military field ambulance. In Naples, he and his men went onto the galleys that had plague and were not allowed to land. He discovered that there were people being buried alive, and ordered his brothers to continue the prayers for the dying 15 minutes after apparent death Camillus himself suffered the disease of his leg through his life. In his last illness, he left his own bed to see if other patients in the hospital needed help.

Reflection

Saints are created by God. Parents must indeed nurture the faith in their children; husbands and wives must cooperate to deepen their baptismal grace; friends must support each other. But all human effort is only the dispensing of divine power. We must all try as if everything depended on us. But only the power of God can fulfill the plan of God—to make us like himself.
