PARISH INFORMATION

02 PARISH FAMILY | GOD IS WITH US

OUR MISSION

Emmanuel Catholic Church which means, God is with us, is a faithful community of believers dedicated to proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament, and service. As a parish family of God, we live by faith, truth, and love as we value the sanctity of life in all its stages and make the Holy Eucharist the center of our lives. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the consultation with our parish ministries, we desire to be witnesses of God's presence as we share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with God's Family.

OUR FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Congratulations and happy 40th anniversary to Emmanuel Catholic Church Parish Family! A short recap of our history: The Archdiocese of Miami purchased the land for Emmanuel Parish in the year 1965. Father Christopher Stack was appointed pastor, June 17th, 1983. Emmanuel Rectory was purchased, September 8th, 1983. Construction on Emmanuel Parish Center began Easter Monday 1986 and was completed in October, 1986. The parish center was dedicated by Bishop Thomas V. Daily, Diocese of Palm Beach, December 2nd, 1986.

TWO SIDES, ONE COIN

As some of you may have heard, Pope Francis along with bishops and lay people from around the world have begun meeting in Rome this past week for the Synod on Synodality and they will be meeting to talk about many different topics in the church. The anticipation around the synod and what will be discussed has been causing a lot of tension in different circles of the Church. People with a more progressive viewpoint are trying to push for certain changes while those who hold to a more conservative perspective are pushing for their own agenda.

One side accuses the other of manipulating the process to change the Church's unerring teaching while people on the other side accuse their opponents of being closed minded and not open to new possibilities. In the middle of all this we find Pope Francis who understands that the real problem is neither the closed mindedness of one side nor is it the manipulation of the other. Rather, the heart of the issue is about hearing the voice of God.

Often in our lives, like these two different sides at the upcoming synod, we think that the problem is outside of us. But the truth is that the greatest problems, dysfunctions and obstacles live within us. They are things that we keep between us and listening to the Lord in our lives.

All of us have the ability to hear the voice of God. Every person was created in the image and likeness of God. This means that no person is without the capacity to hear God speak. But are we listening? Are the bishops or theologians arguing with each other and so concerned with the other side hearing the voice of the Lord? If they were, they would know what Psalm 46:1 says, "Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth". The fundamental issue at hand is whether or not we can know in the midst of the raging voices that God is God which means that he is supreme, all powerful and will do all things.

Our concerns and worries, similar to those of the two opposing sides at the synod, can often overpower the voice of God in our lives. If we desire peace in our lives in the Church we must relinquish our own concerns and worries and ask God to speak. It is only his voice and knowing his presence that will heal and bring resolution. This week try and take some time, coming before the Lord with your own concerns and worries and ask the Lord to help you be still and to come to a place of peace knowing that he is in control of everything.

-Joe Steger

FROM THE UNITED STATES CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS:

Every session of the Second Vatican Council began with the prayer Adsumus Sancte Spiritus, the first word of the Latin original meaning, "We stand before You, Holy Spirit," which has been historically used at Councils, Synods and other Church gatherings for hundreds of years, being attributed to Saint Isidore of Seville (c. 560 - 4 April 636). As we are called to embrace this synodal path of the Synod 2021-2023, this prayer invites the Holy Spirit to operate within us so that we may be a community and a people of grace. For the Synod 2021-2023, we propose to use this simplified version, so that any group or liturgical assembly can pray more easily.

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

THE LIGHTER SIDE

I was in church with my friend last Christmas Day and as we walked out the priest was as usual standing by the exit shaking hands as people left. As he shook my friend's hand, he took him to one side and said to him, "You need to join the Army of the Lord, my son."
My friend said, "But I'm already in the Army of the Lord." The priest said to him, "Then why do I never see you in church save for Easter and Christmas?" My friend replied, "I'm in the secret service."

"Only with prayer—prayer that storms the heavens for justice and mercy, prayer that cleanses our hearts and souls—will the culture of death that surrounds us today be replaced with a culture of life."

—U.S. Catholic Bishops,
Pastoral Plan for Pro-Life Activities

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL PRAYER

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who promised to stay with us always, until the end of the age. Reawaken our wonder at His presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. May our hearts burn within us as He opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread. Give us the eyes of faith to recognize His presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the face of the poor and the suffering. Nourished by the Eucharist, send us forth to walk faithfully as missionary disciples, proclaiming the Gospel to every heart and extending Your kingdom to every land. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, send your workers to your harvest and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel.

Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "yes" to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation.
Amen.

PROTECTION FROM STORMS

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before You as Your children in thanksgiving for Your loving care and protection. We ask that You keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm and safety. Father, we thank You in advance, for You are our only refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles and patroness of our diocese, pray for us.

TO FOLLOW THE FOOTSTEPS OF GIANTS

08 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

ST. JOHN XXIII

Although few people had as great an impact on the 20th century as Pope John XXIII, he avoided the limelight as much as possible. Indeed, one writer has noted that his "ordinariness" seems one of his most remarkable qualities.

The firstborn son of a farming family in Sotto il Monte, near Bergamo in northern Italy, Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was always proud of his down-to-earth roots. In Bergamo's diocesan seminary, he joined the Secular Franciscan Order.

After his ordination in 1904, Fr. Roncalli returned to Rome for canon law studies. He soon worked as his bishop's secretary, Church history teacher in the seminary, and as publisher of the diocesan paper

His service as a stretcher-bearer for the Italian army during World War I gave him a firsthand knowledge of war. In 1921, Fr. Roncalli was made national director in Italy of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. He also found time to teach patristics at a seminary in the Eternal City.

In 1925, he became a papal diplomat, serving first in Bulgaria, then in Turkey, and finally in France. During World War II, he became well acquainted with Orthodox Church leaders. With the help of Germany's ambassador to Turkey, Archbishop Roncalli helped save an estimated 24,000 Jewish people.

Named a cardinal and appointed patriarch of Venice in 1953, he was finally a residential bishop. A month short of entering his 78th year, Cardinal Roncalli was elected pope, taking the name John after his father and the two patrons of Rome's cathedral, St. John Lateran. Pope John took his work very seriously but not himself. His wit soon became proverbial, and he began meeting with political and religious leaders from around the world. In 1962, he was deeply involved in efforts to resolve the Cuban missile crisis.

His most famous encyclicals were Mother and Teacher (1961) and Peace on Earth (1963). Pope John XXIII enlarged the membership in the College of Cardinals and made it more international. At his address at the opening of the Second Vatican Council, he criticized the "prophets of doom" who "in these modern times see nothing but prevarication and ruin." Pope John XXIII set a tone for the Council when he said, "The Church has always opposed... errors. Nowadays, however, the Spouse of Christ prefers to make use of the medicine of mercy rather than that of severity."

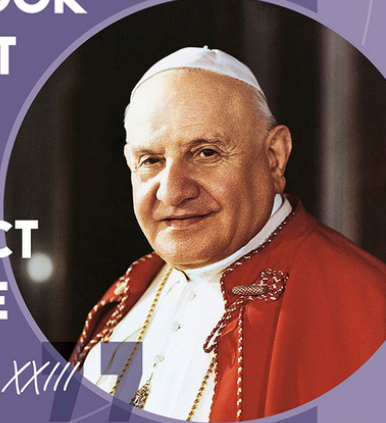

On his deathbed, Pope John said: "It is not that the gospel has changed; it is that we have begun to understand it better. Those who have lived as long as I have...were enabled to compare different cultures and traditions, and know that the moment has come to discern the signs of the times, to seize the opportunity and to look far ahead."

"Good Pope John" died on June 3, 1963. St. John Paul II beatified him in 2000, and Pope Francis canonized him in 2014.

Reflection

Throughout his life, Angelo Roncalli cooperated with God's grace, believing that the job at hand was worthy of his best efforts. His sense of God's providence made him the ideal person to promote a new dialogue with Protestant and Orthodox Christians, as well as with Jews and Muslims. In the sometimes noisy crypt of St. Peter's Basilica, many people become silent on seeing the simple tomb of Pope John XXIII, grateful for the gift of his life and holiness. After his beatification, his tomb was moved into the basilica itself.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

12 EMMANUEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

ALTAR SERVERS NEEDED

Serving God as an altar server is a wonderful way for a child to grow in faith as well as in responsibility, friendship & other virtues. Being an altar server is a sacred privilege.

Altar servers have many duties preparing for mass by lighting candles, helping to set up the altar & assisting the priest during mass. This opportunity allows you to serve in the Greatest Miracle, where something extraordinary happens.

We welcome our youth to sign up to be Altar Servers. Sign up sheet to be located at the student sign in table in Columbus Hall.

The School of Christian Formation for the Diocese of Palm Beach is offering a series of classes for adult Catholics who wish to learn more about the richness of their faith.

Classes are taught at Emmanuel on Wednesday afternoons, from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM, for a total of six classes.

You may attend individual courses for credit or follow the entire three-year program leading to a Certificate of Completion awarded by Bishop Barbarito.

The Diocese strongly recommends these courses for all the faithful, especially those serving in liturgical, educational and spiritual ministries.

The registration fee is $10; textbooks range from $10 to $20.

The next course, Liturgy and Sacraments, begins October 18. This course is an introduction to the history, theology, and pastoral practice of the Church's liturgy and her sacraments.

Please pre-register by either calling the Parish Office (561-496-2480) or by emailing us at faithformation@stvincenferrer.com

October 7, 2023

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Next weekend, October 14/15, the parishes in our diocese will participate in a second collection for World Mission Sunday, observed October 22, which honors those who follow the Gospel mandate to go out and preach to all nations. The 2023 World Mission Sunday theme, chosen by Pope Francis, is Hearts on fire, feet on the move, referring to Saint Luke's Gospel about the disciples on the road to Emmaus (cf. Lk 24:13-35). The Holy Father's message urges the faithful to "renew our zeal for evangelization in today's world."

This annual collection supports more than 1,000 Catholic communities in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. By supporting this collection, we join with many others to assist these missions and ministries and provide help for some of the most vulnerable regions around the world.

As Pope Francis said in his address regarding World Mission Sunday: "Let us set out to make other hearts burn with the word of God, to open the eyes of others to Jesus in the Eucharist, and to invite everyone to walk together on the path of peace and salvation that God, in Christ, has bestowed upon all humanity."

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

SECRETARIA GENERALIS
SYNODI

Vatican, 12 September 2023

Prot. No. 230382

Dear brothers in the episcopate,

“The People of God have been on the move since Pope Francis convened the whole Church in Synod in October 2021” (Instrumentum laboris, 1), and now we have reached another milestone in this process that began with the consultation of the People of God. In a few days, on October 4, the Holy Father will open the first session of the 16th Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, “For a Synodal Church. Communion, Participation, Mission.”

“Without prayer there will be no Synod” (Pope Francis, Prayer Intention for the month of October 2022). The Synod is, above all, an event of prayer and listening that involves not only the members of the Synodal Assembly, but every baptized person and every particular Church. Indeed, all of us are called at this time to unite in communion of prayer and insistent invocation of the Holy Spirit to guide us in discerning what the Lord is asking of his Church today. Therefore, I write to you, who are “the visible principle and foundation of unity” (LG 23) in your particular Churches and the first animators of prayer for the portion of God’s people entrusted to you so that, from the whole Church “an unceasing prayer” (Acts 12:5) may ascend to God for the Holy Father, Pope Francis and for all the members of the Synodal Assembly. I ask you, therefore, to pray for the Synod and to urge unanimous and unceasing prayer from every Christian community in your Particular Church, especially the monastic communities. Prayer is one of the forms of participation proper to every bishop in collegial action and an eminent sign of solicitude for the universal Church (cf. Apostolorum successores, 13).

The different forms of prayer are but the multi-dimensional expressions of the Church’s synodal life. First and foremost, prayer is listening. In opening the synodal journey, the Holy Father said, “The Synod then offers us the opportunity to become a listening Church, to break out of our routine and pause from our pastoral concerns in order to stop and listen.” (Moment of Reflection, Rome, Oct. 9, 2021). The first step in prayer is listening to the Word of God, listening to the Spirit. Therefore, the first contribution of every baptized person to the unfolding of the Synod Assembly will be listening to the Word of God and the Spirit in the conviction that the voice of the Spirit is the sine qua non for ecclesial discernment.

The second form, or face, of prayer is adoration. The Holy Father said, “Today how much we miss the prayer of adoration; so many people have lost not only the habit but also the very notion of what it means to worship God!” (Rome, Oct. 9, 2021). Listening, then, must be followed by adoring silence in awe for what God is saying to his Church and for what the Spirit arouses in the Church today. The synodal path traversed so far leads us to wonder and awe, to the conversion of our gaze from the sadness of resignation (cf. Lk 24:17) to the joyful mission of those who have discovered the presence of the Risen One in their midst (cf. Lk 24:33).

The third face of prayer is intercession. We must believe in the efficacy of intercessory prayer, which is not about bending God’s will to ours. Rather, intercession is about asking the Lord to enlighten our hearts with the power of his life-giving Spirit so that we might discern and do his will. “To intercede” also means to assume responsibility, to declare before God our participation and our involvement. “To intercede” means to say, “I’m interested, I’m in, it belongs to me.” To intercede for the Synodal Assembly, for all its members and, first and foremost, for the Holy Father who so often asks us to pray for him, is to engage the highest form of participation.

Finally, dear brothers, prayer is thanksgiving, recognizing the primacy of God’s action and grace in all our works and in the life of the Christian community. The Holy Father said, “The prayer of thanksgiving always begins from here: from the recognition that grace precedes us. We were thought of before we learned how to think; we were loved before we learned how to love; we were desired before our hearts conceived a desire.” (General Audience, Dec. 30, 2020). The prayer of thanksgiving is a true “therapy” that moves us from our withdrawal into ourselves to the openness that is able to discover all that God continues to work in his Church.

Dear Brothers, with the prayer of listening, adoration, intercession and thanksgiving, the whole ecclesial community will be present, in the power of the Spirit, at the Synodal Assembly as an event that concerns all the baptized. I invite you to emphasize prayer for the Synodal Assembly especially on October 1, XXVI Sunday of Ordinary Time (Year A), remembering it in the homily, the Universal Prayers, and in the final blessing of the Eucharistic celebration. For this purpose, I attach some texts that can be used for the Universal Prayers and the final blessing.

With gratitude to you for your solicitude in guiding your particular Churches on the synodal journey, and to the Lord for the gifts of communion and joyful hope that he makes flourish on our ecclesial journey, be assured of my prayers for you and for your ministry on behalf of the whole Church. May the Spirit of the Lord enlighten us and lead us always in the way of his will, for it is only his Word that makes us live (cf. Ps. 119:50) and in which we find our joy.

Fraternally,

Mario Card. GRECH

General Secretary
